

NEW: Certificate in Ethics & Compliance Management*

Brought to you by:

MARIAN UNIVERSITY
— Indianapolis —
Walker Center for Applied Ethics

Full certification requires completion of 6 courses. First 2 courses offered Fall 2020 as part of our pilot program. (Registration is limited; so don't wait!)

Essentials of Risk Management

Part 1: September 9, 9am – 11am EDT (virtual)
Part 2: September 30, 9am – 11am EDT (virtual)

Learn about key components of an effective Enterprise Risk Management program and explore best practices for ethics and compliance related risk assessment and execution.

Instructor: Mike Bridwell, Advisor, Enterprise Risk Management and Ethics and Compliance, Eli Lilly and Company

Special Pilot Rate: $100

Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption (ABAC)

Part 1: November 4, 9am – 11am EST (virtual)
Part 2: December 2, 9am – 11am EST (virtual)

Gain an overview of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), the UK Bribery Act (UKBA) and other international laws aimed at preventing corruption in international business, as well as the key components of an effective enterprise ABAC program including: policy, training and education, internal controls, risk assessment, due diligence, contracts and agreements, monitoring, auditing, review, reporting, non-retaliation, investigation, root cause analysis, remediation, continuous improvement and third party management.

Instructors: Drew Northern, JD, Director, Global Anti-Corruption, Cook Medical (former FBI Chief Division Counsel and Supervisory Special Agent)

Fernanda Beraldi, LLM, Senior Director, Global Ethics and Compliance, Cummins, Inc

Special Pilot Rate: $100

For more information and to register, please contact Liz Coit, Executive Director, Walker Center for Applied Ethics at Marian University, ecoit@marian.edu