

ADDENDUM TO THE SCHOOL OF NURSING CODE OF CONDUCT

School of Nursing Code of Conduct: The student is bound by the Marian University policies for proscribed (inappropriate) conduct as detailed in the Marian University Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. The didactic professor is the authority over each course and all decisions related to the course.

All Marian University students are responsible for knowing and avoiding the following types of academically dishonest behaviors.

Student behaviors, as evidence of student intentions, will be used to establish the occurrence of academic dishonesty.

Academically Dishonest Behaviors

- 1. Plagiarism. Representing the words or ideas of another as one's own in any academic exercise. Examples include, but are not limited to, failing to enclose a direct quotation from a reference source within quotation marks and/or paraphrasing the words or ideas of another person without proper citation or documentation.
- 2. Multiple Submissions. Submitting the same assignment in two or more courses without the prior permission of the respective instructors. Examples include, but are not limited to, submitting the same or essentially the same term paper for credit in two classes without obtaining instructors' permission, and/or giving the same or essentially the same speech for credit in two classes without obtaining both instructors' permission.
- 3. Fabrication. Falsifying or inventing information or citations in an academic exercise. Examples include, but are not limited to, making up fake data for a laboratory assignment and/or padding a bibliography with references not consulted, cited, or taken into account in the text.
- 4. Misuse of Materials. Abusing or unauthorized possessing of academic materials from the library or any other campus location. Examples include, but are not limited to, taking a book from the library without checking it out, removing pages from a book or magazine in the library, and/or possessing unauthorized exam materials.
- 5. Misrepresentation. Presenting false excuses or using deception to receive a higher grade or to avoid fulfilling the specific requirements of an assignment or course. Examples include, but are not limited to, giving a false excuse to miss a test or assignment, and/or obtaining unauthorized help from another person in the preparation of any graded work.
- 6. Facilitation of Academic Dishonesty. Helping another student violate any provision of this code. Examples include, but are not limited to, allowing another student to copy from a paper during an exam, informing another student of the contents of an exam before they take it, writing a paper for another student who subsequently submits it for course credit, and/or transmitting a false excuse for another student to a faculty member.
